

GLOBAL ARTS + HUMANITIES Society of Fellows

CROSS- DISCIPLINARY DIGITAL DIALOGUES

The Society of Fellows Digital Dialogues series brings together artists, scholars and activists working in a range of disciplines aligning with our current theme of Human Rights: Pasts and Futures. Areas of expertise include studies in art, performance and activism; critical human rights; disability; incarceration; Indigeneity; environmental justice; intersectional rhetorics; migrant and refugee rights; race and citizenship; and sexuality, among others.

DIALOGUE ONE | September 23, 4:30-6 p.m.

Human Rights Pasts and Futures: Pandemics, Racism and Colonialism

DIALOGUE TWO | October 21, 4:30-6 p.m.

Disability, Sexuality and Human Rights

DIALOGUE THREE | November 18, 4:30-6 p.m.

Migrant Rights Within Empire, Art Activism and Democracy

DIALOGUE FOUR | February 1, 3:30-5 p.m.

Post/Human Rights, Indigeneity and Environmental Justice

DIALOGUE FIVE | March 8, 3:30-5 p.m.

Cultural Heritage, Colonialism and Human Rights

DIALOGUE SIX | April 5, 3:30-5 p.m.

Human Rights Beyond Carceral Systems

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

LEARN MORE + REGISTER

go.osu.edu/gahdt-cddd