GLOBAL ARTS + HUMANITIES
Graduate Professional Development Program

DEADLINE: November 1, 2020

PURPOSE
To advance the mission, goals and diversity of the Global Arts + Humanities Discovery Theme by enhancing the professional development of graduate students (PhD and MFA) through their collaboration in cross-disciplinary research, educational programming and community engagement initiatives in the arts and humanities.

These Graduate Professional Development Fellowships aim to:
✦ Embed graduate students in humanities and arts MFA or PhD programs in university entities/initiatives/programs involved in cross-disciplinary research/creative work or community-university partnerships to facilitate the student's professional development.
✦ Establish a mentoring framework that will guide the student’s engagement, illustrate best practices and thresholds for achievement and hone praxis-based skills. Only principal investigators and faculty collaborators may serve as mentors.

AWARD CONDITIONS
1. Proposals may request funding for a Graduate Professional Development Fellowship at 25% for one semester (spring 2021). Aligned with Graduate Administrative Associateships, these positions will follow the same guidance and policies established by the Graduate School (Section 9.2, Terms of Appointment, Reappointment or Termination). The university establishes a minimum stipend for GAAs of $4,320 for a semester-long 25% appointment with an average load of ten hours per week over the duration of the appointment period. Graduate Professional Administrative Associates may not hold an appointment for more than 75% time as a combination of appointments.
2. These positions will be distributed in spring 2021. Hiring units must undertake their own searches to make these appointments. The search should include a detailed description of the roles/tasks that the graduate student will undertake as part of their contribution to the relevant project, how the role will contribute to their professional development, and clarify the types of mentorship that will be made available.
3. GAHDT plans to award 10-15 Graduate Professional Development Fellowships in 2020-21.

ELIGIBILITY
Department, center, institute or program chairs and directors may apply for these fellowships to advance existing or new cross-disciplinary initiatives. Graduate students are not eligible to apply for these awards directly. Previously-funded GAHDT projects that have identified new opportunities for graduate student professional development are eligible to apply for these funds.

PRIORITY CONSIDERATION
Priority consideration will be given to new and ongoing projects with sustainable programmatic and/or curricular alignments supporting and integrating cross-disciplinary education, outreach and research opportunities across the arts and humanities.

HOW TO APPLY
All proposals must be submitted online, where applicants will be guided through the submission process for their proposal type. For more information, visit the Opportunities page of our website.
Proposals guidelines

Department, center, institute or program chairs and directors are invited to submit proposals that:

1. Align with GAHDT’s mission and clearly explain the position’s relevance and impact for the department, center, institute or program in terms of its contributions to cross-disciplinary research and/or community engagement and education in the arts and humanities in the twenty-first century. Proposals may request a Graduate Professional Fellowship at 25% for one semester to work with program chairs/directors and staff to implement this vision. Proposals should run NO MORE than six double-spaced pages.

2. Include a precise job description detailing a meaningful vision for the graduate student's professional development and its relevance to academic and/or alt-ac career possibilities. It must also describe how the position will promote issues of equity, inclusion and diversity.

3. Describe the forms of outcomes (performance, podcasts, videos, blogs, website, catalogue or database, publication, curriculum and so on) that the project aims to produce and the graduate student's role in helping to achieve these deliverables.

4. Include a plan for mentoring the graduate student to achieve demonstrably cross-disciplinary research or educational goals. Note that grant recipients and their mentees will be required to submit an end-of-year report, which will be reviewed by the faculty director. Department, center, institute or program chairs/directors who apply will serve as the graduate student’s mentor and point of contact for communications with GAHDT during the duration of the appointment.

EVALUATION PROCESS + CRITERIA

1. Relevance and impact: Does the proposal identify significant contributions that the fellowship position will enable for the hiring unit?

2. Cross-disciplinary emphases: Does the proposal align with GAHDT’s mission in terms of its contributions to cross-disciplinary research and/or community engagement and education in the arts and humanities in the twenty-first century?

3. Imagined outcomes: Does the proposal offer a clear description of the activities the graduate student will engage in, the professional skills that will be cultivated thereby, and the potential career relevance of these? For example, the student might play a role in delivering services (such as training or consultation), creating a resource or product (such as a curriculum, a catalogue or a performance) or supporting an organization (such as writing a grant, designing a community partnership or managing a journal).

4. Mentoring plan: Does the proposal envision meaningful involvement of faculty mentors and provide a clear description of the mentoring process for the fellow?

5. Diversity and inclusion: Does the proposal encourage the engagement of issues related to diversity and inclusion?
