

GLOBAL ARTS + HUMANITIES DISCOVERY THEME HIGHLIGHTS

- 1 $3.8m | Investment in cross-disciplinary research and arts and humanities interventions
Investment in faculty research that demonstrates the value of cross-disciplinary approaches to global concerns and challenges of the current moment.
- 2 $800k | Mentoring and cross-disciplinary research support for undergraduate and graduate students
Funds allocated to advance cross-disciplinary student engagement and experiential learning in the arts and humanities.
- 3 65% | Grants support women faculty and staff
Two-thirds of our research monies support the research and creative practices of women faculty and staff.
- 4 30% | Grants support underrepresented groups
A third of our grant monies support the scholarship and creative practices of faculty and staff from underrepresented or marginalized communities.
- 5 45% | Grants invested in community-engaged projects
Nearly half of our grants amplify community projects that embrace diverse perspectives and advance the transformative power of public-facing, partner-engaged work.
- 6 65% | Hires were women
Two-thirds of our hires have contributed to the advancement of gender diversity among the ranks of our faculty and leadership.
- 7 42% | Hires were from underrepresented groups
Nearly half of our hires have contributed to the equitable representation of underrepresented groups among the ranks of our faculty and leadership.
- 8 INNOVATION | First team-based, arts and humanities graduate fellowship program in the United States
The Graduate Team Fellowship program brings together graduate students whose projects intersect with GAHDT Focus Areas – providing them with an opportunity to gain cross-disciplinary mentorship in a collaborative environment.
- 9 GOLD | International award recognizing design for social change
GAHDT received a gold award for our visual identity suite and a silver award for our signature brochure.
- 10 FINALIST | #MillionsofChangeMakers from Ashoka U
This award recognizes a broad, institutional commitment to building and supporting meaningful community partnerships. GAHDT was awarded for support of Be the Street; Design Matters in Brazil; DaNCe2U; and the Livable Futures Louisiana Field Schools.

