

GLOBAL ARTS + HUMANITIES DISCOVERY THEME

LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES:

FACULTY FELLOWS

DEADLINE
February 15, 2023

Global Arts + Humanities Faculty Fellows act as thought partners and advocates, ensuring the advancement of GAHDT's mission, goals and diversity. Faculty fellows report to Professor Wendy S. Hesford, the faculty director, and they work closely with the GAHDT leadership team and advisory committee to advise on initiatives. GAHDT seeks to hire two faculty fellows for 2023-2024, one with expertise in cross-disciplinary humanities and the other with expertise in cross-disciplinary arts.

QUALIFICATIONS

Faculty fellows must be tenured faculty members on the Columbus campus who have a demonstrated record in cross-disciplinary research, teaching and/or community outreach in the arts and humanities and whose research and practices are grounded in humanistic and/or collaborative inquiry. Preference will be given to faculty with administrative experience in strategic planning, development and implementation of cross-disciplinary initiatives. Faculty should indicate which of the two positions (humanities or arts) they are applying to when submitting their applications via the GAHDT web portal.

TERMS OF APPOINTMENT

Faculty fellows will receive a one-course buyout equivalent to 12% base salary and benefits and summer funding equivalent to an additional ninth of their base salary. GAHDT will transfer these funds to the faculty member's TIU. TIU heads will work with the faculty member to reduce service responsibilities in accordance with college guidelines and in line with unit needs. Faculty fellows will be appointed to a one-year term anticipated to start no later than August 15, 2023 and are expected to be on duty on campus for at least one month in the summer of 2024.

SCOPE OF APPOINTMENT

Working with the faculty director and GAHDT Advisory Committee, faculty fellows are responsible for a variety of academic, administrative and outreach duties including:

- + Advising the GAHDT leadership team on priorities for advancing cross-disciplinary arts and humanities initiatives, including review of undergraduate, graduate and faculty grants.
- + Identifying opportunities for GAHDT to increase its commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion.
- + Co-facilitate GAHDT's Society of Fellows with GAHDT Faculty Director (including the bi-weekly seminar, SOF Digital Dialogues series and culminating year-end event) OR co-mentor GAHDT's 2023-24 Society of Fellows Graduate Team Fellows cohort. This program requires graduate fellows to meet with each other and the faculty mentors once a month during the academic year to advance cross-disciplinary understandings. In addition to sharing in-process research, fellows are required to apply for extramural funding and/or professional development opportunities during the fellowship and will be guided through this process by the faculty mentors.
- + Coordinate with GAHDT leadership to organize and facilitate at least one public-facing, cross-disciplinary methods event during the academic year.
- + Work with GAHDT leadership to help to establish qualitative performance metrics that value arts and humanities methods and practice.

HOW TO APPLY

All proposals must be submitted online, where applicants will be guided through the application process for their proposal type. Faculty should indicate which of the two positions (humanities or arts) they are applying for when submitting their application. For more information, visit the Funding Opportunities webpage: go.osu.edu/gahdt-funding.

Submit electronic copies of the following materials:

1. A two-page letter of interest summarizing established record of engagement with and leadership in facilitating cross-disciplinary research, teaching and/or community partnerships.
2. A current curriculum vitae.
3. A brief letter from applicant's department chair indicating the unit's support of the application.
